

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	v
Foreword	ix
1 Brownsville’s Legendary Teacher: Jesse Coldren
Legendary Brownsville teacher taught for half a century	1
Jesse Coldren’s unusual gift to his church	6
The true tragedy of the life of Jesse Coldren	11
Former students remember Mr. Coldren	16
Unlocked door reveals a remarkable surprise	21
2 Going To The Movies! The Strand and The Plaza
The Strand Theater provided moderately priced entertainment	26
The Plaza Theatre: Brownsville’s grandest showplace	31
Movies were not the only attractions at the Plaza	39
The Strand Theater made a dramatic exit	43
And then there was one: The Plaza Theatre	48
3 Castor Oil and Spider Webs: Old Time Cures
A quick dip could cure that poison ivy itch	52
Who says there is no cure for the common cold?	55
Soda pop bottle helped cure painful boils	59
Spiders provided a helpful remedy for a bleeding wound	63
Daily dose made children shudder!	66
Castor oil could get things moving	70

4 The Leader of the Band: Sammy Bill
Former Redstone band director comes from a musical family	75
Redstone band directors shared Italian heritage but different styles	79
Sammy Bill led the BAHS marching band to a national championship	84
Retirement has not slowed down Sammy Bill	88
5 The Big Wind: Remembering the Storm of 1936
Post card photograph prompts story of 1936 tornado	93
Sharing memories of the Storm of 1936	98
Mother Nature strikes a blow for humility	103
6 No Brakes! Runaway Trucks on Brownsville’s Hills
Recent accident in Brownsville prompts reader’s short story	106
Latest crash rekindles memories of 1951 tragedy	110
7 Taming the Monongahela: Brownsville’s Locks and Dams
Walking across the Mon	115
Searching for remnants of old Lock No. 5 at Denbo	118
Memories of life at the Brownsville lockkeeper’s house	123
Building Locks and Dam No. 5 at Brownsville	126
Traveling through Lock No. 5 at Brownsville	132
The final days of Lock No. 5 at Brownsville	136
Maxwell Locks and Dam are nearing a half-century of service	140
8 Witness to a Century Along the Mon: Harold Laughery
Harold Laughery has witnessed many decades of local history	145
“Chops” Laughery recalls an unusual home invasion	149
Reflections on a century of change along the Mon	154

9 End of an Era: Pre-Revolutionary Luzerne Property Is Sold
Sale of pre-Revolutionary Luzerne property marks end of an era	161
Remembering “Tommy Crawford’s Field”	165
10 A Brownsville-Built Treasure: Unearthing the Arabia
Why the Great White Arabia lay hidden beneath a cornfield	170
Four friends make the discovery of a lifetime	173
Treasures of the steamboat Arabia are now on display	178
11 Pink Chicks and Onion-Dyed Eggs: Remembering Easter Traditions
Readers share memories of Easters past	184
Unusual family competition was an Easter tradition	188
12 Dedicated to Serving His Home Town: Jack Sabo
West Brownsville man has served his community for half a century	193
Jack Sabo has witnessed fifty years of borough change	197
13 The Banker and the Librarian: The Story of the Brownsville Free Public Library
Unusual façade gives clue to origin of Brownsville library building	201
Librarian’s darkest hour brings a ray of hope for Brownsville	207
Residents share fond memories of visiting the Brownsville library	212
14 Brownsville and World War II: At Home and Abroad
Remembering December 7, 1941 in Brownsville	218
Answering the challenge after Pearl Harbor	221
Defending the Home Front	225

Brownsville students and faculty went off to war	229
Life on the Home Front during World War II	238
Two Brownsville men were on the ill-fated S. S. Dorchester	241
Four chaplains' sacrifice inspires all generations	245
One more casualty: The Commander-in-Chief	248
15 Peering Into the Past: Images of 19th Century Brownsville
A selection of the earliest known photographic images of Brownsville	254
Appendix: Dates of original publication of newspaper articles	274
Index	275